Sue-Ellen's fundraising and Uganda adventure

Melbourne, Australia Tue, 05/11/2013

About this event:

Let the adventure begin! I am on a journey to step up and make a difference in the lives of people less fortunate than myself. Recently I've been accepted into a women's leadership program which, in a nutshell raises money for The Hunger Project Australia (THPA) who work with local communities in third world countries to break the cycle of poverty, through empowerment, communication and sustainable change.

I have pledged to raise $10,000 for THPA before I go to Uganda in November for one week to see first-hand how poor, illiterate women are taking control of their lives in a holistic way, as a result of the partnership with THPA. It's a lot of money for me to raise in less than a year, but it's something that I'm truly passionate about as the objectives of THPA align with my personal belief of equality for all, regardless if you have won or lost in the birth lottery. Thank you for your support – it truly will make a difference to the lives of many!
